NATIONAL NEWS

FCA Honors Hall of Champions of 2018 in Kansas City

During a special ceremony in May, FCA inducted the Class of 2018 into the Hall of Champions. The honorees and their families gathered at the FCA Support Center in Kansas City for the annual ceremony. George Crace, Mark Mestemacher, Don Cockroft, Joel Dearing, Jerry Moore and Dr. Sam Nader have worked tirelessly to further the FCA vision: to see the world transformed by Jesus Christ through the influence of coaches and athletes.

The Class of 2018 was officially inducted at a ceremony followed by a luncheon. A special glass plaque was also presented to the inductees, and their photos and biographies will be a permanent part of FCA's Hall of Champions display. Information about the Class of 2018 may be found at FCA's Hall of Champions page, along with a complete list of previous Hall of Champions inductees.

"We were thrilled and honored to welcome this impressive group of Hall of Champions inductees to our home in Kansas City. These wonderful individuals have not only made contributions to the sports they love, but to the communities and teams to which they are committed. We are so thankful for their contributions to sports and to Jesus Christ through FCA."

- FCA President and CEO Shane Williamson

Ron Frank, FCA VP of Field Ministry in the Pacific Northwest Region, talked about upcoming FCA camps and the overall impact FCA camps can make in seeing the world transformed by Christ through the influence of coaches and athletes on The Dove, a popular Oregon-based media outlet.
